The XIX International Drawing and Painting Competition Joy of Europe

This year's International Drawing and Painting Competition, for the nineteenth time since its foundation, invites children and young artists from all over the world to use their rich palette to make the international event Joy of Europe more beautiful.

From year to year, awarded works speak of childhood's authentic visual culture, sensitising both the audience and expert public to this form of artistic expression.

On the occasion of the first European Children's Gathering, one of the most significant Serbian children's authors Dusko Radovic compiled the so-called "Dictionary of Friendship", which has for the past 48 years stood as a universal theme of the gathering, by selecting 15 "most beautiful" words for children: Child, Europe, Bread, Game, Book, Love, Mother, Peace, Father, Song, Friend, Bird, Joy, Freedom, Sun.

Propositions

The competition is open to individuals, preschools, schools, children's art studios, children's cultural centres and similar children's institutions and associations.

- Competition is open to all the children of the world from 4 to 18 years of age.
- The theme is selected from the word in the Dictionary of Friendship.
- The choice of technique and theme is completely free.
- Artwork should not be fitted or framed, and, because of the possibility of damage, sculpture, ceramics, mosaic and works done in similar techniques will not be accepted.
- Artwork's format should be A3 (297 x 420 mm)
- Individual participants can send up to three works in different techniques, and institutions and associations up to 20 works by different authors.

Artwork must be original and self-made, created in 2016. or 2017., and must not have been previously exhibited at other international competitions and exhibitions.
Submitted artworks will not be returned.

Deadline for submissions is July 1, 2017.

Send your works to:

Dečji kulturni centar Beograd, Takovska 8, 11000 Belgrade, Serbia

Prizes

Jury of experts will choose entries for the exhibition and give out prizes in individual and group categories for five age groups:

I category includes children aged 4, 5 and 6

II category includes children aged 7, 8 and 9

III category includes children aged 10, 11 and 12

IV category includes children aged 13, 14 and 15

V category includes children aged 16, 17 and 18

The jury will also award a number of commendations.

Special awards will be given out to art teachers for innovative methodological approaches in nurturing and developing children's artistic creativity.

Winners of first prizes for individuals in all five categories will be guests of Belgrade and the International Gathering of Children of Europe 'Joy of Europe' in the period between October 2 and 5, 2017, with the cost of their accommodation covered by organisers, while they will receive their award at the ceremonial opening of the exhibition held on October 2. The prize winners will have to cover their own travel expenses.
